THE PRELIMINARY SURVEY

Railroad Talk at Winston Grows More Confident.

WANT A FEDERAL BUILDING.

There is a Warm Time and Trouble Ahead for the "Bull of the Brushies" in An Open Letter.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Winston, Jan. 22—At the Chamber of Commerce meeting last night considerable railroad talk occurred and it leaked out that the Southern would surely have a through line by this place in a very short time. The chamber expressed its confidence in this by ordering a preliminary survey made from Kernersville to Reidsville at at once. It is estimated that a road can be built between the said towns at a cost of $8,000 a mile.

The chamber has hope also of getting a federal building for the Twin-City. They appointed a committee of seven to assist Col. P. H. Lybrook in securing data by which Congressman Linney might have something to work upon when he inaugurates a strong effort to secure an appropriation for a government building here which it is said he will do at an early date.

The chamber also inaugurated a movement to start a home fire insurance company. Our plan suggested was to subscribe all capital stock by giving notes and dividing up the profits in a year or two without actually paying in any of the capital stock. This plan however was not adopted.

An open letter to Congressman Linney relative to appointments made in his district will shortly be published here. The letter is highly sensational and written by a former strong supporter of his but now an avowed enemy.

A SHORT GRIND.

Adjourned Meeting of Board of Aldermen.

The board of Aldermen met in adjourned meeting last night, Mayor Nelson in the chair. The following members were present: Ellington, Frazier, Hiatt, McKinney, Phipps, Sargent and Thornton.

A petition from Eclipse Hose Company was read asking for apparatus. On motion, referred to the fire committee to investigate and report at next meeting.

A. L. Brooks filed a petition against removing the electric light from the corner of West Washington and South Ash streets. Regarding this matter Mr. Sergeant gave notice of motion to reconsider the vote taken last Friday night ordering this light removed to the Baptist church. And on motion the petition was referred to the electric light committee to investigate and report at next meeting.

Alderman Phipps moved that the Southside Hose Company be allowed $12.50 per month for the maintenance of their horse. Carried.

The ordinance establishing a board of health for the city was read and discussed by Drs. Beall, Battle and Ledbetter, and on motion action was postponed until next meeting.

The meeting adjourned.

New Concert Company.

The William H. Sherwood Concert Company, under the leadership of Mr. Sherwood who is one of the world's greatest artists and the leading pianist of this country has been scheduled to appear at the Academy of Music on Wednesday Feb. 9. Tickets will be sold by subscription and the company comes under a large guarantee. It is on a tour of twelve concerts through the South and will appear at but two places in this State—Greensboro and Charlotte. Prof. Brockmann secured the company and it is well known that he does not concern himself with any musical attractions but the best.

Republicans in Charge.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Knoxville, Tenn., Jan. 22—The republicans took charge of municipal affairs here today for the first time in twenty-five years with William Rule, editor of the Journal, as Mayor.

A YANKEE MUSICALE.

Dr. and Mrs. Whitsett Entertain Delightfully Last Night.

A novel and delightful affair was the Yankee Musicale at the home of Dr. and Mrs. G. W. Whitsett on Church street, yesterday evening, complimentary to the members of the West Market Street Methodist choir.

Each guest represented some old, familar song, and the other guests were required to guess the song represented. The representations were ingeniously arranged and the guessing was decidedly amusing. Miss Daisye Carraway won the ladies' prize and Dr. J. H. Wheeler the gentlemen's prize by guessing the largest number.

After the guessing contest Miss Mabel Hill played snatches of well known songs on the piano, and those present guessed them. Miss Nannie Wood, James Rankin and A. H. Alderman tied for the prize, each guessing the entire number. They drew straws and Mr. Alderman won.

All the prizes were silver.

After the above features elegant refreshments were served. The guests departed at 11:15, much pleased with the evening's entertainment. Those present were:

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Merrimon, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Ireland, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. J. Stone, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Alderman, Mr. and Mrs. J. Ed. Albright, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Alderman, Mrs. L. H. Robertson, Mrs. Doub, Mrs. Myra Albright. Misses Mabel Hill, Janye Gainey, Laura Doub, Bertha Wheeler, Helen Wheeler, Lola Carraway, Daisye Carraway, Nannie Wood, Minnie Reid, Andrews, Applewhite, Whitsett, Brent. Messrs. Fuller Reid, Will Devin, Jim Rankin, W. T. Whitsett, Gilbert Rowe, Richard Crawford, George Phillips, Jim Mann, John Wheeler, Frank Boyles, Arthur Rankin, George Brooks.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News from Our Neighbor Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU, HIGH POINT, N. C., Jan. 22, '98.

The Archdale concert band in the opera house last night was heard by a large and appreciative audience. The hall was tested to its full capacity. The performance was excellent and each member deserves special notice.

Shell & Harrison, a jewelry firm of Charlotte, assign today. Mr. John Shell, formerly ran a jewelry establishment at this place and has a host of friends who will regret to hear of his misfortune. The estimated liabilities are $8,000; assets are $5,000.

Dr. W. G. Bradshaw, cashier of the Commercial National Bank of High Point, has tendered his resignation to accept the position as secretary and treasurer of the Globe Furniture Co. His successor has not been elected.

Lawyer E. D. Steel was called to Charlotte last night on special business.

Miss Annie Ragan, of Archadle, spent yesterday in the city.

Rev. N. R. Richardson returned last night from Monroe and Wadesboro where he has been on business.

B. M. Burton left this morning for Greensboro on business.

Rev. P. J. Carraway was in the city today.

W. H. Hall, of Greensboro, spent yesterday in the city.

Reception to Colored People.

Reported for THE TELEGRAM.

The stock holders of the Guilford county Industrial Fair gave their first annual reception at the Piedmont Hotel on South Elm street last evening between the hours of 8 and 11:30. There were about 80 couples. The large dinning room was beautifully decorated in American colors. The couples lined up for a march to the dinning hall and the orchestra played "Dixie." Tea was served and Prof. Chas. H. Moore gave a very appropriate toast. Anderson G. Wilson said grace and while the couples were enjoying supper the orchestra played "Carolina."

MRS. RATCLIFFE ARRIVES.

Jockey Sloan Will Not Ride for the Prince of Wales—McKinley Will Dine Dole.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Paris, Jan. 22.—M. Zola has addressed a letter to Villot, Minister of War, protesting strongly against the action of the government in permitting the prosecution of himself by confirming the charges to certain comparatively mild passages contained in his recent letter to President Faure and ignoring the graver accusations which he made against Generals Mercier, Villot and others. M. Zola reiterates his charges and declares that he adheres to the more serious statements contained in the original letter.

NEW ARRIVALS.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Jan. 22.—Mrs. Caroline Ravenhill Ratcliffe, of London, was a passenger on the American liner St. Louis which arrived here this morning. She will testify for the prosecution in the case against Actor Ratcliffe, charged with bigamy.

Tod Sloan, the noted jockey who has been riding in Europe, arrived today on the Campania from London. He was greeted by the racing sports here. He will leave for Cincinnati where he will see Fleischman for whom he will ride. He denies that he will attempt to break his contract and ride for the Prince of Wales.

MATTERS AT THE UNIVERSITY.

The Freshman Class Chooses Its Representatives.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Chapel Hill, N. C., January 22.—There will be a new feature in the next commencement. It will be an annual address before the law classes and Judge T. C. Fuller has been selected to deliver the address.

Just 500 students have registered since the University opened its fall term in September. Thirty-one new men have registered since Christmas.

The class of 1901 have elected the following class officers: President, J. F. Maddry; vice-president, Thel Hooks; secretary, J. C. Hobbs; poet, J. E. Huher; orator, L. G. Eskridge; historian, Claude R. McIver; essayest, R. S. Satterfield; prophet, T. J. Harkins. Mr. McIver is from Greensboro and is a brother of Dr. Chas. D. McIver, of the State Normal.

Sand-Bagged the Cashier.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Southampton, L. I., Jan. 22—Burglars entered the home of Assistant Cashier Williamson, of the Southampton savings bank this morning and sand-bagged Williamson and his wife and went up stairs leaving Williamson insensible with his jaw broken. Mrs. Williamson regained consciousness and scared the burglars away. They dropped their booty.

Glenn Confirmed.

The Senate yesterday confirmed the nomination of Tyre Glenn to be postmaster here and the matter is finally settled.

Unqualified Promise of Peace.

London, Jan. 21.—Senor Sagasta, the Spanish premier, according to a special dipatch from Madrid this afternoon, reported at the cabinet meeting last evening that all the dispatches received from Cuba gave "unqualified promise of peace."

He is said to have added that this was not only the impression in Cuba, but in the United States as well.

"Have you followed my argument so far," inquired the verbose gentleman.

"Yes," replied his impatient friend. "But I tell you candidly, I'd quit its company right here if I thought I could find my way back."—Washington Star.

WARM TIME IN DURHAM.

Military Company, Church and Band Indicted.

Durham, Jan. 21—The citizens of Durham are greatly stirred up. Solicitor Bynum is raking the town for evidence against citizens for gambling.

Yesterday morning when court opened the judge had the grand jury brought before him and charged again. He said it had come to his ears that gambling was being very extensively practiced in and around Durham, and informed the grand jury that it was their duty to look into such matters.

The grand jury took his honor at his word and have had about forty subpoenas issued, under which about twenty people have been arrested and given bond in the sum of $50 each.

Naturally the solicitor is being severely criticised for the active part he has taken in the matter, not that the people do not want to see justice done, but they seem to be of the opinion that the greater crimes should be pushed with as much vigor as the lesser ones, if not more.

The warrants in the hands of the sheriff will reach in Person, Chatham, Orange and Durham counties. The gambling which the defendants are charged with is taking chances in raffling contests.

It is rumored before the grand jury complete their work they will have presented bills of indictment against the military company, the church, the Durham band and various benovelent institutions for engaging in the same kind of business.—Charlotte Observer.

THE BRAZILIAN EXPOSITION,

American Goods Being Pushed at that Show.

By Wire To THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Jan. 23.—The North and South American transportation company at No. 12 Broadway is sending a large number of samples of American manufactured goods to Rio de Janeiro where they will be exhibited at the national exposition which will shortly be held there. Orders will be taken for these goods on samples by representatives of the company now in Brazil. It is expected that a large trade will result.

Walser Totes a Pass.

The News and Observer says of Attorney-General Walser:

Mr. Zeb. Vance Walser rides on a free pass.

This pass was given him by the Southern Railway Company, as "local counsel," at Lexington, N. C.

Mr. Walser has been in Raleigh this week. He came here on this pass; he went way on it. No doubt this very minute he has it in his pocket.

The beauty and fitness of all this will be seen when it is remembered that Mr. Walser is our accomplished Attorney General.

As such he is popularly supposed to be the State's prosecuting attorney. For this the State pays him first and last $3,400, or $400 more than the Governor gets.

Silver Dollar that is Valued $6,000.

Albany, Jan. 19—A silver dollar of the issue of 1804 is owned by James Ten Eyck, of this city, a Past Grand Master of Masons. He purchased it in New York city in 1888 for $100, and secured with it the necessary papers to prove its authenticity. Some time ago he refused $3,000 for the coin.

A dollar of this issue has been stated to be worth $6,000. Mr. Ten Eyck says the statement that there are only four of these coins in existence and that one of them is not accounted for is erroneous, for there is a reliable record of the existence of seven of them.

Mr. Ten Eyck says the British museum is not the owner of one as stated. Mr. Ten Eyck has one of the best collections of rare coins in the country.

A Imputation Resented.

"Do you," said the friend who had invited Piute Pete into a restaurant, "Do you—er—make a practice of eating pie with your knife?"

"'Course," was the reply. "Ye didn't think I didn't know no better than to grab it in my fingers, did you?"—Washington Star.

The penitentiary board has perfected the lease of the Tillery farm, in Halifax, which was arranged for several months ago. It is taken on shares, Mr. Tillery furnishing everything except the convict labor. On each of the State farms a couple of acres will be put in sugar beets as an experiment.

If General Campos is a wise man he will send his regrets when asked to again assume the responsibility of editing Spain's Cuban dispatches.

White winged harmony seems inclined to brood like a pair of gentle jackdaws over the g. o. p. in various parts of the country at this juncture.

The sandbagging of Ballington Booth's secretary was a very high-handed proceeding. The perpetrator was probably suffering from temporary dementia superinduced by loss of sleep.

Our esteemed contemporary, the Wilmington Star, states that the first number on the programme at the Y. M. C. A. anniversary in that city was "When the Bloom is on the Rye," and the last was a "Hunting Song." Keyholes?

The Hon. Grover Cleveland has bought a farm which he will stock with game birds. Now let the Hon. G. C. provide himself with a duck pond and a government tender and the final requisites for an existence stuffed with beatitudes will be his.

There are many people in this country who, when the time shall come to "controvert" upon that head, will be pleased to have the Charlotte Observer prove that gold has always been the standard in this country and that silver has done the fluctuating.

There is little room to doubt that matters of moment are going forward in the worlds capitals just now and that over the heads of more than one nation impends a sword of Damocles. Congress is on the verge of breaking away from Reed and McKinley and recognizing Cuban independence. In view of such a possibility our warships are being rendezvoused to be prepared for the subsequent crisis. The situation in the east is more critical than ever and any hour may see a conflict. The year of 1898 begins inauspiciously and before its end there may be considerable changes in the map of the world.

The talk of tar and feathers in connection with the proselyting Morman elders in our neighbor the Twin-City is ill advised. Tar and feathers make up a code of logic out of fashion in these latter days. It is to be hoped that we have gotten beyond that highly intellectual method of argumentation. The only fitting reply to such gentle persuasion could come from the mouth of a .44 and we trust that the tenets of the Morman creed do not preclude, as the law does not, the elders from making such reply. There are a good many people in this country still with tongue-boring and eye-gouging proclivities and they are far and away the least desirable citizens we have—Mormans of the Brigham Young stripe not excepted. Right or wrong, Mormans have the same right under the law of the land to proselyte as other sects and such rights should be preserved to them at any cost. This is 1898 not 1598.

SATURDAY'S LITERARY CHAT.

From all the bookstores and libraries of the country come reports of an insatiable demand for "Quo Vadis." It is taking its place in the drummer's grip along with the choice productions of Laura Jean Libby, Bertha M. Clay, et als.; served out to the bored tourist on the cars when he must have something to read. The twenty-five cent edition has placed the book in the reach of all and all are reaching for it. The chorus of praise is almost unvaried by a single dissenting opinion. Quo Vadis is extravagantly praised, partly for its merits and mostly because praise is the fashion.

It is really amusing to note how a book becomes a fad. Despite what is said about "jumping into fame," etc., it requires considerable time for a book to become the rage. The Trilby craze was perhaps the most violent of recent years. Though Trilby had run its serial course and had been read by everybody who makes a pretention to keeping up in literary matters, it was not until it was months old in book form that the Trilby craze began and the chorus was swelled by "Trilby collars," "Trilby gum" and "Trilby cigarettes." Quo Vadis was published in the latter part of 1896 and is only reaching the height of its popularity. Quo Vadis is a strong book, but does not deserve to be made the victim of a craze. It will probably escape the dubious compliment of the gum and cigarettes. "Quo Vadis gum" does not have the right swing about it.

It is late toward the eleventh hour to mention the current Century, but no month's notices are complete with that admirable periodical left out. Excellent as a whole, there are special features that deserve the emphasis of distinctive mention. "The Adventures of Francois," a story of the French Revolution, by Dr. S. Weir Mitchell, author of "Hugh Wynne, Free Quaker" that is having a run next next to Quo Vadis, makes its appearance. Those who have been interested in Hugh Wynne and wish to follow Dr. Mitchell in his new story will, therefore, begin with this number. Gustav Kobbe contributes a paper on "Every-Day Heroism" that commemorates incidents worthy to know and heartening to remember. "The Mysterious City of Honduras," by George Byron Gordon will interest all who have a taste for archaeology. "Madame Butterfly," by John Luther Long, a Japanese story, has created considerable comment and has been the oject of caustic criticism at the hands of women who pronounce it false to life. "Maximilian's Empire," by Sara Y. Stevenson, gives some reminiscences of an eye witness of that melancholy and tragic fiasco.

The beautiful Bayou Teche country of Louisiana, with its French families, is the scene of Christian Reid's love tale, "The Man of the Family." Other new novels for Lydia Languish are Adeline Sergeant's "The Lady Charlotte" G. Manville Fenn's "Cursed by a Fortune," Mrs. Alexander's "Barbara, Lady's Maid and Peeress" and Sidney Pickering's "Margot," a romance of foreign life and travel.

New stories for boys and girls are Mrs. Carrie L. Marshall's "The Girl Ranchers of the San Coulee" and Julie M. Lippmann's "Miss Wildfire," "Miss Molesworth's "Meg Langholme," Marguerite Bouvet's "A Little House in Pimlico" and Amy E. Blanchard's "Three Pretty Maids."

SPAIN IN GRAVE PERIL.

The London Times Say the Situation is More Serious.

London, Jan. 20.—The Times, discussing the speech made by Mr. Hitt in the House of Representatives yesterday on the Cuban belligerency matter, says it is convinced that President McKinley does not desire war with Spain, but thinks it doubtful whether he will prove strong enough to resist the pressure brought upon him.

The Cuban question, the paper adds, is evidently much more serious than it was two days ago, and the Government is not any stronger. In such circumstances almost anything may happen, and any accident may precipitate a decision which but recently those who take it would have indignantly pronounced impossible.

Office at Workman's furniture house. Oil and needles for all machines. Call; you will find a lady ready to wait on you. Buchanan & Wootton. j 18 2w

GOOSE GREASE LINIMENT CO., Greensboro, N. C.:
I feel it my duty to testify to the superior merits of "Rice's Goose Grease" as a cough cure. On Friday night the 7th inst I coughed almost the entire night. Cough syrups etc. failing to bring any relief whatever. On the following night I decided to test the virtue of your remedy by bathing my chest thoroughly with it and going to bed, and I tell you honestly I never slept sounder in my life. I take pleasure in commending "Rice's Goose Grease" to those who may be in need of a cough cure.
Wishing you much success. I am

TRAIN PULLED THE ROPE.

Two Men Thrown from a Plank in a Curious Accident.

Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 20.—The Shultz Bridge Company is building a bridge on Highland avenue here across the ravine through which the Pennsylvania Railroad runs. The two main girders have been in position for two days. The derrick which handles the material stands between the girders alongside the railroad track.

This morning John Creegan and Charles Lewgreen walked out on a plank thrown across the girders and went to work repairing the derrick. A long rope tied to the plank hung down over the railroad tracks. The men did not think of the rope and kept at work. As the East Liberty accommodation train swept around a bend in the road, the smokestack of the engine brushed the rope, which caught on the ventilator of one of the cars and was dragged forward.

The weight on the rope bent the plank, and the rebound shot both men in the air. Creegan fell on top of a passenger coach, and was carried 200 feet, falling into the ditch at the side of the track. He was killed instantly.

Lewgreen fell alongside the water rail, his head striking the ironwork of the bridge. His skull was fractured, and he was injured internally.

The plank was not dragged off, and two other men who were on the plank. Timekeeper John Mohair and a spectator, saved themselves by falling on the plank and clinging to it.

"LOVED, BUT WAS NOT LOVED."

Salesman Shoots Himself in a West Street Hotel.

A. Blackney Covington, traveling salesman in the employ of Beck & Gregg of Savannah, Ga., shot himself in a hotel at 388 West street yesterday. He lies in St. Vincent's hospital, badly wounded and a prisoner. The police have a note which was found in the room. It reads:

"To my friends in Wadesboro, N. C.: While strolling down Broadway I decided it would be best to tell my friends good by and go to my rest. Your friend. I loved, but was not loved."

The police also found the seat checks of two theatre tickets used Wednesday night. Covington went to bed late that night. No one heard the shot. In the morning the bell boy heard him breathing heavily and at once gave the alarm.

WEEPING LUETGERT.

The Sausage Maker Placed on the Witness Stand.

Chicago, Jan. 21—Adolph L. Luetgert went on the witness stand today, and told the story of the doings in his sausage factory the night of May 1, 1897. He endeavored to explain the mystery surrounding the disappearance of his wife, for whose murder he is being tried.

Luetgert proved to be a very lachrymose witness, his tears coming frequently and in considerable volume whenever the name of his wife was brought into the case. He will take the stand again tomorrow.

The Fatal Festival Razor.

Franklinton, N. C., Jan. 21.—At a negro festival near here last night Brock Jackson was probably fatally cut by Thomas Lyon, both colored. The cutting was done with the favorite negro weapon, a razor. Jackson now lies at the point of death with a fearful cut extending from the right shoulder diagonally across the body to the left thigh. His arm and leg are also badly cut.

A warrant is out for Lyon who has fled and who is supposed to be near Creedmore.

Jackson is a brother of Jenadus Jackson, for whose killing J. A. Moore is now serving a fifteen year sentence in the penitentiary. Lyon is about 20 years old, dark ginger cake color, about six feet tall, weighs about 160 pounds and right arm off below the elbow.—News and Observer.

Martinez Campos May go Back.

Madrid, Jan. 20.—It is said that the Government is considering the question of appointing Gen. Martinez Campos as Commander-in-Chief in Cuba, retaining Gen. Blanco as Governor-General of the island.

E. St. John Resigned.

St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 24.—The Republic will say tomorrow: It is stated on what is considered the best of authority that E. St. John, who recently tendered his resignation as manager of the Seaboard Air Line, to take effect February 1, will on that day become manager of the Union Pacific. He will succeed Edward Dickinson, who will accept an executive position with the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad.

The Blackwell Durham Tobacco Company declares a 3 per cent. semi-annual dividend on $3,000,000 capital.

PILES OF COUNTERFEIT BILLS.

Louis Holler, a German, employed as a janitor in the clubhouse of the E. C. Schade Association, in Angelique street, West Hoboken, surprised the members of the association yesterday by displaying $65,000 in counterfeit money, which he said he found in a secret closet in the garret of the clubhouse. The building, which is a two-story frame structure, was formerly occupied by the members of the notorious Brockway gang, who were committed to the New Jersey State prison two years ago for counterfeiting. At the time the house was raided the secret service men found counterfeit notes and steel plates from which the notes were printed.

While rummaging about in the attic yesterday Holler discovered a trap door opening into a closet between the rafters, and there he found a dozen packages of counterfeit notes. The notes were printed on one side. They ranged from $20 to $100. Holler turned his find over to the police, and the secret service department was notified. —New York Sun.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE DOCTOR.

Mrs. Baird Fined $50 for Not Reporting a Case of Diptheria.

Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 20—Christian Science received a hard rap today from Judge Wofford in the Criminal Court. The occasion was the trial of Mrs. Amanda J. Baird, a Christian Science doctor, who was fined $50 in the Police Court for not reporting to the Board of Health a case of diphtheria in the family of S. H. Kinney, in whose house ten-year old Mae Kinney afterward died. Mrs. Baird administered Christian Science treatment to the child.

The case came before Judge Wofford on appeal in affirming the judgment of the trial tribunal.

The Judge said the methods of Christian Science in attempting to heal were frequently akin to murder.

Kitchin's Happy Hit.

Washington, Jan. 21—Representative Kitchin came to the front in the debate and succeeded in putting representative Dingley, of tariff bill frame into a very deep hole. Congressman Jerry Simpson, instead of talking about Cuba took occason to pay his respects to the Dingley tariff bill and to call attention to the prosperity which has not yet made its appearance. It was during Mr. Dingley's reply that Mr. Kitchin got in his telling points. He interrupted Mr. Dinley by asking several pertinent question which forced from the Maine Congressman the admission that a protective tariff did not affect the price of Southern cotton goods, nor the wages paid operatives in Southern cotton mills. Just think Dingley admitting that his high tariff has nothing to do with the price of cotton in the South. Mr. Kitchin is all right and hereafter when he asks leading questions of Republicans they will be a little chary about answering. He certainly put the republican party in a hole on the tariff question.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Holton tells you about the necessity for medicine, in his change of ad. today.

A new two story dwelling is being erected by W. B. Bogart, on Smith street, between church street and Summit avenue.

Rev. Dr. T. N. Ivey will preach at Grace M. P. church at 10:30 a. m. tomorrow. The pastor will preach at night as usual.

The local item yesterday in regard to stepping stones should have read South Davie and Fayetteville streets instead of South Elm.

The Whist club was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Fry at their residence on Arlington street last evening. After whist refreshments were served. The following enjoyed the charming hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Fry: Misses Bertha Mebane, Mary Horry, Margaret DeButts, Laura Ballard, Virginia Bernard, Walker Fry. Messrs. W. Giles Mebane, Hal Mebane, Berger, Bradley, Schenck, Douglas. Mr. and Mrs. Gales, Mr. and Mrs. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Gayle, Col. and Mrs. Kase, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Sharpe, Gen. Glenn, Prof. and Mrs. C. R. Brown.

Opinions of Wang.

An exchange says, of this season's production: "The Park Theater was completely filled last night by an audience that sat and laughed for two hours and a quarter, listened to beautiful sentimental songs for half an hour and spent the other quarter of three hours in waiting for a change of scenery from the public landing on the river Menam, at Pechaburi, to the Royal Palace at Bangkok.

Wang has been so well spoken of and so well advertised, that people last night went to enjoy themselves, they did. The operatic burletta, for as such the composers have named it, has been seen here before. At that time the "Herald" spoke in warm words of praise of its catchy airs, tuneful melodies, capital chourses and words, which were far above the average libretto. The producing company is a credit to those who did the selecting. The part of Wang the regent of Siam could not have been played better than it was last evening in the hands of Dan Packard; he is everything that goes to make up the part of the impecunious regent."

Secure your seats at once. The Academy will not hold the people who will want to see Wang. Prices 50c, 75c and $1.00.

Little Boy Badly Burned.

Yesterday afternoon as the little three-year-old son of Thomas Tally, at Proximity Mills, was playing around a wash pot in the yard his clothing caught fire and before the flames could be extinguished the little fellow was severely burned.

Dr. Turner is attending him, and says the burns are not thought to be fatal, though it is hard to tell how seriously as yet.

Volunteers Wanted.

Who will promote the organization of a Stock Company to construct and operate an electric street railway between the Southern railroad station and the Normal School via the Female College, and "The Park?"

Visitors to Greensboro are surprised at the absence of street railway services in this city, and say: "You are greatly behind the times." This is an allegation no one likes, who has the best interests of Greensboro at heart. Some one estimates that 400 to 500 fares would be taken daily, between the city and Normal School during school term from the students alone.

Inquirer.

The Light Question.

The matter of moving an electric light from the corner of Washington and Ashe streets to the junction of Green and Washington at the Baptist church, has been reconsidered by the board and placed in the hands of the light committee to investigate.

There is no doubt abont the fact that a light is badly needed at that point, and one should be put there. It is claimed by some that a light at this place on a high pole would afford almost as much benefit to Ashe street as is derived from the present light, by reason of the trees on the west side of Ashe.

If this be true then the light should be moved. If not practicable to move the light, then a new one should be provided.

calls your attention to a handsome line of dress skirts which they have reduced from $5 and $6 to $3.50, made of all wool storm serge and full rustle lining. Also handsome novelty goods.

Our line of coats is somewhat broken in sizes and all we have on hand we propose to close out regardless of cost. As coats change so much in style, if we wait to see what next season brings forth we may get left, so have decided to make great sacrifices.

Come and take a good look at our Underwear. Have a nice line of Corset Covers from 12 1-2c for a good cambric waist, and a nice Hamburg trimmed front and back for 25c. Our gowns that were $1 we have marked 75c; good cambric with Hamburg trimming in Hubbard and Empire style. The skirts are in plain and umbrella ruffles, handsomely trimmed and ranging in price from 75c to $1. A nice line of Drawers from 25c to $1.25.
